

MOTION BY SUPERVISOR GLORIA MOLINA

September 30, 2003

Lalo Guerrero is internationally recognized as the “Father of Chicano Music”; he has written hundreds of songs during his six-decade career, including the classic bolero “Nunca Jamas” and “Cancion Mexicana”, considered the unofficial anthem of Mexico.

On Saturday, October 4, 2003 the music and arts community will honor the father of Chicano Music, including performances by Mariachis, Ballet Folklórico and other special guests at the John Anson Ford Theater.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE THAT the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles does hereby declare October 4, 2003 Lalo Guerrero Day in the County of Los Angeles and congratulates him on his 60-year career as a musical artist and as the historian and social conscience of the Chicano community.
